Two seats open in the Nov. election for FPUD board of directors

FALLBROOK – Two seats are open in the November election for the Fallbrook Public Utility District board of directors.

Local residents interested in serving on the FPUD board and wishing to take part in the election can now file for candidacy with the San Diego County Registrar of Voters office. The terms are for four years.

Candidates must live within the boundaries of FPUD’s sub-district #2 or sub-district #5. Boundary maps can be found on FPUD’s website, www.fpud.com, under the “governing our district” tab.

The deadline for nominating documents to be filed is Aug. 10, 2018 at 5 p.m. Completed packets must be returned to the Registrar of Voters office, 5600 Overland Ave. in San Diego. However, the deadline is extended to Aug. 15 at 5 p.m. if the incumbent directors do not file for re-election.

Anyone interested can pick up candidate information and filing packets from either the FPUD office’s board secretary, at 990 E. Mission Road in Fallbrook, or from the Registrar of Voters.

Each of FPUD’s five board members live in separate sub-districts of the agency’s service area. Further information may be obtained by calling the county registrar at (858) 505-7210.
