

OMWD Still Accepting Applications for Vacancy on Board of Directors

Encinitas, CA—Olivenhain Municipal Water District is calling for applications to fill the Division 1 vacancy on its Board of Directors. Departing director Marco San Antonio resigned from OMWD on January 24.

OMWD's board intends to conduct interviews at its March 19 board meeting to fill the vacancy. The newly appointed director will represent Division 1 through December 4, 2026, filling the remaining 20 months of the four-year term.

Individuals interested in completing the remaining portion of the Division 1 directorship shall submit a completed application package to OMWD's General Manager no later than 5:00 p.m. on March 3. Candidates must reside in OMWD's Division 1, which includes portions of Encinitas, Elfin Forest, Harmony Grove, Rancho Santa Fe, Rancho Cielo, 4S Ranch, and Fairbanks Ranch. Applications, a map of Division 1, and additional information about the appointment process are available at www.olivenhain.com/division1.
